Vidplanet Video CMS (pro version)

Vidplanet is video content management system, or video CMS, which enables to centralize, manage, and deliver video online.

User Manual

© 2017, Creativeitem

Contents

The Vidplanet premium video cms pro is a 360-degree solution for effectively and efficiently managing video contents. It also allows the admin to use this portal as a video marketplace where the paid videos can be sold to users. Users can get access to free videos and can choose to buy paid videos using this system.

Admin Panel

Dashboard

The dashboard appears right after putting proper credentials to sign in into the system. The system has dual user mode namely Admin and User. The dashboard provides a full overview of the whole process including premium video purchase graph and infographics on insights and analytics.

Users

Under Users section, a new user can be added by clicking on "Add New User". The credentials of the user profile can be visualized with in-built update and delete options.

Videos

The video section has five different subsections with some important functionalities.

a) Add Video: The videos can be added from add video section of the portal. The options for video sources are two, youtube and others. The supported format for video import is ogg, mp4 and webem formats. After adding the video, it can be associated with video pack. Also, the videos can be selected to be kept under features section from add video section.

b) Add Video Pack: The associated video packs that holds a list of videos can be added, updated and deleted from this subsection. A playlist can be packed together to form a video pack.

c) Videos: The videos enlists all the videos that are being added to the list. The videos can be viewed, updated and deleted from this section.

d) Video Packs: The video packs and the videos associated with the videos can be visualized as well as updated from this subsection.

e) Categories: Various new entities of different categories can be added, as well as updated from this subsection.

Report

The sales report refers to the number of sales within the selected date range. By default, the report of last 30 days is shown both in a graphical way and tabular way. You can also select any custom date range if you want.

Settings:

Settings are the key component of any management system. The flexibility of a system is defined by its easy to handle settings.

User Interface

The main theme, home page video, banner and many amazing features can be changed from User interface subsection listed under settings section.

System Settings

The "System Settings" will let the user to change the general settings by editing the required data field. Also, it gives a feasibility to change logo, contact information other important settings aspect. The youtube api key that is needed for importing the files are found in system settings, to obtain how to get a youtube api key, just click on the red marked field in the system settings tab.

Youtube api key settings

Youtube api key is required for importing youtube videos. You can follow the instruction here on how to obtain a youtube api key : https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Im69kzhpR3I

Language Settings:

The software supports multiple languages along with RTL and LTR support. For selecting a language which can be availed from "Language Settings". "Language Settings" lists all the available languages and allows addition of new phrase and new languages with its "Add Phrase" and "Add Language" tab. Phrases can be translated into your own language.

Payment settings
The app supports multiple system currency. To proceed with payment, the app supports payment via PayPal and stripe . Using "Payment Settings", the PayPal account and Stripe can be set up and saved to proceed with business transactions.

Manage Profile:
The profile information can be edited by clicking at "Manage Profile tab listed last at Dashboard -> Settings. The information can be edited and saved.
Password can also be reset by clicking "Change Password". To change the password, current password and new password are the mandatory field that are needed to be filled out and for checking the new password should be confirmed by retyping it again.
By clicking "Log Out" listed at top right corner, one can successfully log out from this application.

User Frontend:

The user frontend is made amazingly simple yet lucrative for the users to experience.

Universal Search: A powerful search bar is integrated for better visualization and searching options for the users. The search bar caters to any video listed in the database of the cms portal.

Homepage: The homepage is made with a homepage featured video taken from the video packs to ensure better user experience.

Featured Video: The featured video list received from the admin panel are shown with a fully-fledged implanted slider in the frontend of the system.

Newly Added: The newly added videos at the admin panel of the app are shown in "Newly Added" category.

Popular List: On the basis of most view the popular list is generated that ensures better usability.

Videos by Category: The top bar has categories sections where the videos are placed on the basis of category.

Premium Videos: At the very bottom, the premium videos are listed that the user may buy using the available payment options listed under payment category of admin panel.